Seller agrees to promptly release item/s upon request, if not already in ESOT's possession, once successfully sold for shipment/delivery to the winning buyer. Seller is aware that eBay auctions are binding contracts and that sellers are obligated to deliver the items just as buyers are obligated to pay for them to avoid financial and other derogatory penalties. If seller cancels the auction for an item after an auction has begun there is a $100.00 cancellation fee. Sellers understands that they are not allowed to bid on their own item to in affect raise the selling price of the item. This is called "shill bidding" and is strictly prohibited by eBay and is also against our business policy.
